SYDNEY FILM FESTIVAL 2014

Sydney Film Festival is one of the world's longest-running film festivals, screening works from around the world in venues across the city over 12 days. In a CULT exclusive, the director of Sydney Film Festival, Nathan Moodley, reveals his personal favourites of the 2014 program. Page 33

BANGARRA'S FIRST SHOW OF 2014 SET TO PREMIERE

Celebrating its 25th anniversary in 2014, Australia's multi-award winning dance theatre company Bangarra has announced its first production of the year, Purigaring, an inspirational journey of a possum Indigenous spirit alive in Australia's past and present. Told through the thrilling creativity of lauded artistic director Stephen Page's choreography and David Page's arresting soundscapes, Purigaring promises to be a deeply powerful dance theatre experience. Purigaring premieres at Sydney Opera House on June 13, and then tours to Canberra, Perth, Brisbane and Melbourne. Bangarra has a plethora of exciting events planned for their 25th anniversary, so keep checking their website for details and announcements. www.bangarra.com.au

GALLERY SWAP

Sydney's Dominik Mersch Gallery and Berlin's Galerie Patrick Ebensperger swap spaces

Dominik Mersch, Sydney

Galerie Patrick Ebensperger, Berlin

In the wake of the Royal Academy's blockbuster exhibition Australia and the ever-globalising art market, two gallerists, Dominik Mersch of Sydney's Dominik Mersch Gallery and Patrick Ebensperger of Berlin's Galerie Patrick Ebensperger, are embarking on an exciting never-before-done venture – a cross-continental gallery swap.

Both galleries recently relocated and expanded to new and unique locations in 2013: Galerie Patrick Ebensperger to a former crematorium in Wedding, set to be the next creative hub of Berlin, and Dominik Mersch Gallery to a sky-lit loft and re-developed sail-making workshop in the heart of the dealerships and meatpacking of Sydney's Rushcutters Bay.

Dominik Mersch Gallery, which has always focussed on introducing international artists to Australian audiences, will exhibit its chosen artist in the new Galerie Patrick Ebensperger space – and vice versa. **■
