Applications are now open for Dominik Mersch Gallery's new Curator Award. Emerging curators are invited to apply.

The aim of the award is to give emerging curators the opportunity to experience curating and realising an exhibition in a commercial gallery setting.

The 2015 applications will be judged by a panel including Dominik Mersch, Gallery Director and Glenn Barkley, independent curator and artistic director of Art Month 2015.

The winning curator will be given a show in the Dominik Mersch Gallery Exhibition Calendar 2015.
